Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on December 18, 2006 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of US 6,706,163 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1 – 25 and 27 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art is Seul (WO 97/40385). Regarding independent claim 1, Seul ('385) does not disclose or render obvious the step of generating an electric field having a frequency that is less than or equal to the relaxation frequency of at least one of said particle types but greater than the relaxation frequencies of at least one other of said particle types, wherein the particles having relaxation frequencies greater than or equal to the frequency of the electric field are separated from other particles, in combination with the remaining limitations of the claim. Regarding independent claims 13 and 21, Seul ('385) does not disclose or render obvious the method of determining zeta potential of particles based on their relaxation frequencies, in combination with the remaining limitations of the respective independent claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
